

GROUNDSPREAD ASSOCIATION AWARDS - GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

These awards have been devised by Groundspread NZ (the New Zealand Groundspread Fertilisers Association). It is expected that nominators and nominees have read, understood, and agree to adhere to these terms and conditions at the time of entering these awards.

- It is the duty of the nominator to inform the nominee that they are being nominated, and to direct them to these terms and conditions.
- All nominees must be aged 18 years or over and reside in New Zealand.
- All nominations must be received before the closing date to be entered into the award category stated on the nomination form.
- The judges will assess nominations fairly and without prejudice for each category.
- Winners of each category will be selected by the judging panel. The judges' decision is final, and no discussion will be entered into.
- All nominees will be notified personally after the closing date. They will be asked to provide additional biographical information and a hi-res photograph for marketing purposes.
- Nominees will be announced publicly via the media, social media, and industry networks.
- Nominees (and their nominators) are expected to attend the Groundspread NZ conference for interviews with the judging panel.
- The winners will be announced at the Groundspread NZ Conference held in July each year. If conference is unable to proceed due to any unforeseen circumstances, then an 'Awards Gala' will be held in July to present the awards.
- Winners will not be notified of their status beforehand.
- Winners will be profiled in relevant media, social media, and industry networks.
- Winners will read and understand their contractual obligations to the award sponsor (provided upon receipt of award).
- Prize packages for each award are at the discretion of the award sponsor.
- The terms and conditions of these awards are governed by the laws of New Zealand.
